For those who de - ny Him no word, has He said, Say something for Him.
Then He will con-fess to our Fa-ther in heav'n; Say something for Him.
Your mouth must confess His sal - va - tion and grace; Say something for Him.
When He gath - ers jew-els, will you each be one? Say something for Him.

Tell it, giv - ing God the glo - ry, While the days are go - ing by;

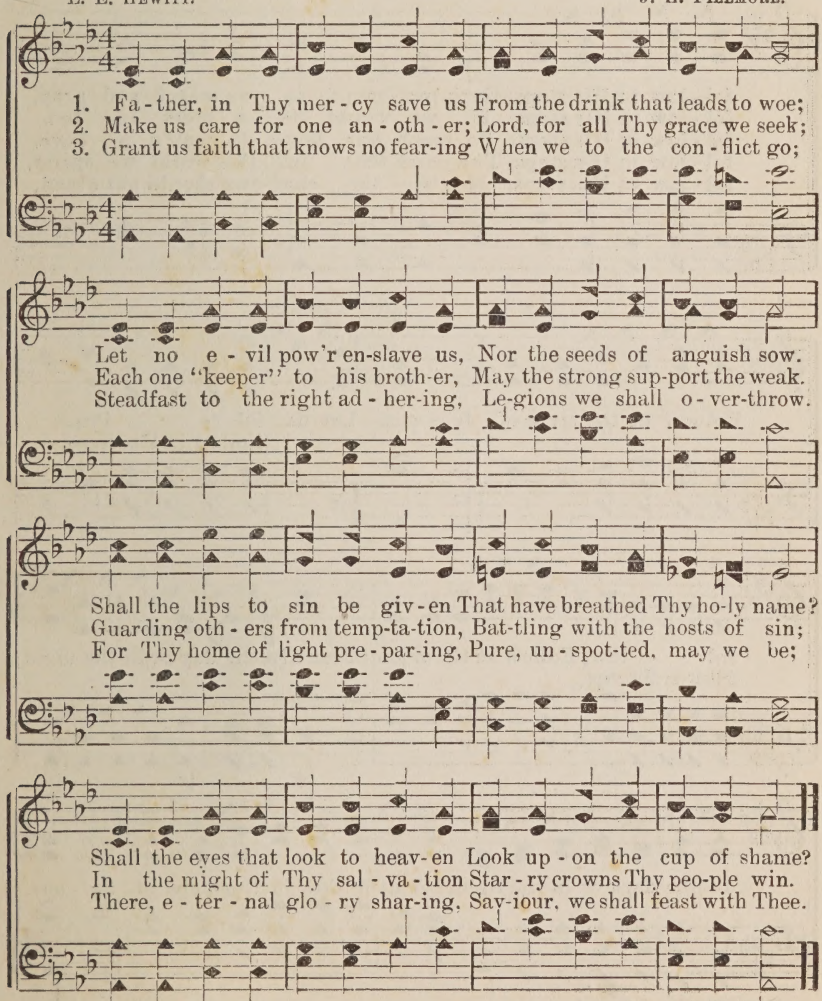
129 A Temperance Prayer.

E. E. HEWITT. J. H. FILLMORE.



1. Fa-ther, in Thy mer-cy save us From the drink that leads to woe;
2. Make us care for one an-oth-er; Lord, for all Thy grace we seek;
3. Grant us faith that knows no fear-ing When we to the con-flict go;
Let no e-vil pow'r en-slave us, Nor the seeds of anguish sow.
Each one "keeper" to his broth-er, May the strong sup-port the weak.
Steadfast to the right ad-her-ing, Le-gions we shall o-ver-throw.
Shall the lips to sin be giv-en That have breathed Thy ho-ly name?
Guarding oth-ers from temp-ta-tion, Bat-tling with the hosts of sin;
For Thy home of light pre-par-ing, Pure, un-spot-ted, may we be;
Shall the eyes that look to heav-en Look up-on the cup of shame?
In the might of Thy sal-va-tion Star-ry crowns Thy peo-ple win.
There, e-ter-nal glo-ry shar-ing, Sav-iour, we shall feast with Thee.
